By an order of the Worshipfull Court of Surry [one or two illegible words] directed to enquire into the condition and state of health of Margaret Bedolph a Pensioner in the County being unable to attend Surry Court for the examination by the Magistrates into her condition as to her health and circumstances. We are of opinion on having examined her, she is a real object of Charity and if her usual Pension is stopped must become a Parish charge to which she did not formerly belong. Given under our hands Sept'r 6th 1792. Jno Watkins/ Thomas Peter
