Virginia Bounty-Land Claim of Thomas Gaskins VAS1519

Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris

[\[Bounty-warrant records in the Library of Virginia\]](#) include petitions to Gov. Littleton Waller Tazewell (1834-1836) for bounty land by heirs of Thomas Gaskins. The online images of the petitions and other documents are mostly illegible. A summary of the claim, however, includes the following passage: “He was [three illegible words] in the Illinois Regiment. He enlisted [one or two illegible words] Richard Clarke [sic: Richard Clark, pension application X149], July 30th 1780 for the war; and was in service from that time to the 15th of February [illegible year] and perhaps later.”]
