[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

Henrico County to wit

This day John New of the County of Henrico came before me a justice of the peace for said County & made oath that William Hogg entered the Army of the United States as an enlisted soldier about the year 1778 in the company raised by Captain William Lewis (as he thinks) that he the said Hogg never returned till after the war was over, & he has no doubt that he served to the end of the war, that the said Hogg was first sent in the northern Army & was then transferred to the South where he was made prisoner by the enemy. Given under my hand this 5 day of March 1834.

Petition for bounty land

William Hogg – Soldier C. L. [Continental Line]

Nothing has been offered in support of this claim but the affidavit of John New (whose credibility has not been proved) – that Mister Hogg enlisted about the year 1778 – went first to the North; and afterwards to the South where he was taken prisoner – and that he did not return home until after the war ended – further, That he has no doubt, he served to the end of the war.

Respectfully submitted

Governor Tazewell
