[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

[Note: the file also contains what appears to be an assignment by the veteran of his wages and land warrant dated in January 1783, but the image of the document (set forth below) renders most of the words illegible. What I think I see as the text is as follows:

I do hereby authorize [indecipherably faint word or words] Blackwell to [indecipherable word] all the wages due me from this Country for my service in the Navy for [several indecipherable words] land Warrant] [several indecipherable words] this 1 day of January 1783.

Test: S/ William W. ?

S/ William Huse

S/ John ?

The image shows a scan of a handwritten document, likely a pension statement or warrant, with significant portions of the text obscured by heavy black redaction bars. The visible text is written in cursive and includes the name "William W. Huse" and the date "1783". The document appears to be a formal statement or assignment, as mentioned in the text above.
