Charles City County to wit

This day James Bullifant [S39236] of said County personally appeared before us Justices of the peace for the County aforesaid and made oath that he the said James Bullifant was himself a regular soldier in the service of the United States during the Revolutionary war that he belonged to Captain William Gregories [William Gregory] company attached to the sixth Virginia Regiment, and served out his time and has lately received the land to which he was entitled, for his said service. The said Bullifant further made oath that he was well acquainted with Francis Bullifant, William Warberton & Charles Bullifant [see endnote] and Daniel Creighton, that they were all of the County of Charles City and were all of them soldiers in the service of United States during the Revolutionary war, that they enlisted, under Captain William Gregory whose company was attached to the 6th Va. Regiment, first for two years which time they served, and then reenlisted for three years, and served out the term of their reinlistment, and were discharged, that there was no charge against anyone of them he ever heard of. so far as he knows or believes, they were true and faithful soldiers – that he knew them all since the Revolution & that they died in the county of Charles City. That Cap William Gregory also was of the County of Charles City and his company was principally raised in that county

Given under our hands and seals, this 20th[?] day of Feb'y 1833

NOTE: In a petition for a pension the widow of Charles Bullifant stated that her husband died in 1777.
