Lewis county to wit
This day Thomas Carney [see endnote] personally appeared before me the subscriber a Justice of the peace in & for said county and made oath that he is sole heir to his brother whose name was Anthony Carney and who was enlisted to serve for and during the war of the revolution That his said brother belonged to the 2^d Reg't. of the Virginia line on continental establishment his captain's named was Marquis Calmes. His said brother was killed in Jersey at the battle of Monmouth [28 Jun 1778] and left no children nor wife, and that he is the sole heir at law of his said brother. That his said brother enlisted in Frederick county in Virginia about the year 1776 in the reg't and line above stated and for the period above stated. That his said brother left no will that he ever heard of. subscribed and sworn to this 16th February 1833.

given under my hand this day above written. Wm McKinley JP

NOTE: An application for a pension filed in the name of Thomas Carney (R1711) was rejected on evidence that he was too young to have served in the Revolutionary War. For details of the investigation see my appendix to the pension application of David W. Sleeth S6111.
