At a Quarterly Session Court continued and held for Princess Anne County the second day of August 1831.

The Court certified that satisfactory evidence was adduced to prove that John Carrol was a private in Captain Ballards Company in the Virginia line in the Continental Army during the Revolutionary war, and that he, the said Carrol served three years & upwards and to the close of the said war, and was honourably discharged. The Court further certifies that it was satisfactorily proved that William Carrol is the nephew of the said Jno. Carrol and his sole heir at law.
