I do hereby Certify that I was well acquainted with Maj Buller Claiborne who was formerly an Officer in the United States Army – my first acquaintance with him was in the year 1776, when he was a Lieutenant in the Virginia line on Continental Establishment, and belonging to the second Regiment commanded by Colo. Alexander Spotswood [R18089] after which he received the appointment of Aid Decamp to General Lincoln, and in the Capacity I believe he acted during the time that General Lincoln had a Command in the Army and I believe was in Office till the [end?] of the War. Given under my Hand this 10th Day of February 1807.

Petersburg 13 February 1807. Being called on by the Representatives of the late Maj'r Buller Claiborne dec'd [I] do Certify that the said Buller Claiborne at the time of the commencement of the American Revolution lived [several illegible words] and did business as an assistant in the same Mercantile house of Taylor Newman[?] & Wray with myself. That about that time he left the said [undeciphered word] perhaps some time in the year 1775 and I think, to the best of my recollection he was appointed an officer in a Company raised by Capt Richard Kidder Meade [VAS625] of Prince George County of the first Regular troops that were raised in the State of Virginia and I suppose he entered into this service perhaps in the latter end of the year 1775 or in the year 1776. J Grammar

I do hereby Certify that Buller Claiborne was appointed a Lieutenant in the second Virginia Continental Regiment in the year 1775 and after some time being in the service He was appointed an aid to General Lincoln and acted as such I believe untill the end of the Revolutionary War. Given under my hand this 16th[?] February 1807.
