Sir Please to send by Mr. Camp a certificate for my pay and warrant for my land due me for my services and you will oblige yr. Hb'le Serv't. Wm Cooke
Colo. Merawether [sic: Thomas Meriwether] Nov'r 26th 17[?]

NOTE: Col. Charles Harrison, Capt. John Champ Carter, and Capt. Ambross Bohannon were all in the First Regiment of Continental Artillery. It is therefore assumed that the two files are for the same Sgt. William Cook (Cooke), who may have re-enlisted for the duration of the war after having been discharged from his first term of service..
