The following are from [bounty-land records in the Library of Virginia.]

This is to certify that David Crowley, formerly a Soldier in my Regiment, and whose term of Service expired in the month of September 1780, was discharged by me at that time in Fredericksburg, I think, the 18th day of that month: he informs he has lost that discharge by accident. Said Crowley hath received all his Bounty, Pay & Cloathing and deficiencies of Pay & cloathing, except such as is certified on the back hereof. Said Crowley is incapable of discharging the active duties of a Soldier & I therefore forewarn all recruiting officers or Militia divisions from enlisting him.

He is capable of attending a single gentleman and taking good care of two or more horses.

Given under my hand at Cumberland Old Courthouse, this third day of July, 1782
