I James Burby of Bourbon County and State of Ky, State that I was a Regular Soldier on the Virginia line during the Revolutionary War and was well acquainted with the late Robert Griffin and do well know that he was a Regular Soldier on the Virginia line under Capt. Roan [sic: Christopher Roane X635] and that he was in the services at the Besiegeing of Cornwallis [at Yorktown, 28 Sep - 19 Oct 1781] and acted as sergant.

Given under my hand this 26th March 1838 James hisXmark Burby

Auditors Office Aug 19 1840

The enclosed papers are submitted to the Executive according to the request of Mr Arnold If Griffin is entitled to anything it is additional land bounty. It appears that he settled his account as a Sergeant of artillery and only received land as a private.
