Virginia documents pertaining to Edward Larkin VAS3935
Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris.

From [bounty-land records in the Library of Virginia.]

I do certifie that Edward Larkin was a soldier from the beginning of the War in the first Va Reg't & that he was taken at Charles Town [Charleston SC, 12 May 1780] with the Reg't of w'ch I was then Lieut. Colo. he was as well as I recollect enlisted for the War he was in such a situation as could not be moved when exchanged at Ch's Town. I believe him to have been a good & faithful soldier therefore hope he has not lost the opportunity of coming in for what has been allowed to others
