[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

[Note: Except as may be contained in a few illegible documents, his entire file consists of powers of attorney and receipts for a pension of Eighteen Pounds awarded Daniel Hyden. There is no substantive documentation of his service or the nature of the wounds he sustained for which he was allowed a pension. Page 80 is a document signed by Polly Hyden (with her mark) as the administrator of the estate of Daniel Hyden who she states died November 12, 1837 in Lee County, Virginia. A veteran by this name appeared on a list of men who are believed to have been at Buford's Defeat [Battle of the Waxhaws, May 29, 1780], but I could find no support for that in this file.]
