To the Honorable Littleton Waller Tazwell [sic: Tazewell] Governor of Virginia
The memorial of Lewis Peed of the County of Mathews and State of virginia

Your memorialist humbly petitioning States that he is entitled to a certain bounty land as he is advised, under the following state of facts William Peed who was a resident of Kingston Parrish then a part of Gloucester County now constituting Mathews County, enlisted in the Countanental Line during the Revolutionary War under Captain Tompkies in the 7th virginia Regiment in the capacity of Soldier in the year 1776 or 117 and served in that capacity until he was killed at one of the battles to the north which I have heard was the Battle of Brandywine your memorialists is informed and verily believes. That William Peed being killed never received the land bounty to which he was entitled – that he left Four brothers James, Andrew, Lewis and Thomas that James was the eldest who has died leaving your memorialist his only child and heir. that Thomas and Andrew has died Leaving no Lawfull issue Lewis Peed died leaving three Children. your memorialist is advised that by the Law of primogeniture James Peed was the heir at law of William Peed and that now the right is in himself.

Your memorialist verily believes that William Peed never received the land bounty promised him and having respectfully submitted his case in the best manner that his submitted acquaintance with the facts would enable him prays that his claim to the said bounty Land may be acquired into by our Honour in [the rest missing from bottom of page] [certified 10 July 1835]
