I do hereby certify that I enlisted in the latter part of the year 1776 as a private in the 3^d Regiment of Virginia Troops on Continental establishment in the war of the Revolution, which Regiment was commanded by Col. George Weedon [BLWt2418-850] of Fredericksburg & Lieutenant Col. Thomas Marshall [VAS494]. This Regiment was I think enlisted for three years & marched to the north. John Thomason of Louisa County enlisted in the company commanded by Capt. Thomas Johnson which belonged to this Regiment. The last time I recollect of seeing John Thomason was at Dumfries in Prince William County.
