Hampton January 10th 1784

D'r. Colonel I had got this far on my way to Richmond in order to settle my account with the public but the hard weather puts it our of my power to proceed by water & the bearer Mr. Hopkins being so kind as to undertake to negotiate the matter for me I have thought it best to return. I beg leave Sir to ask your advice or instruction in case of error, or want of form, as also to acquaint Mr Hopkins when we were considered supernumerary as well as any other information he may need on that head. I have been inform'd Sit that 'tis necessary to obtain a certificate of never having resigned or been dismissed the service, and as you are in our line I know of no Officer I should sooner apply to in such case than yourself.

I hope Colonel you'll believe me to be with much respect yr. Servant.
