[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

This is to Certify that Henly Moore enlisted in Colonel Marshall's [Thomas Marshall's] Regiment of State Artillery [indecipherable word] 20, 1777 and served three years and since dead. Given under my hand this to December 1784

S/ G. Johnston C. S. L. [Gideon Johnston]

A handwritten cursive document enclosed in a rectangular border. The text reads: "This is to certify that Henly Moore enlisted in Col. Marshall's Regiment of State Artillery on the 20. 1777 and served three years and since dead given under my hand this 2 Dec^r 1784 G. Johnston C.S.L." The signature "G. Johnston C.S.L." is written in a larger, more decorative cursive script at the bottom right.
