[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

Thomas Moor [sic] a Soldier in the 2nd Virginia S. [State] Regiment having served three years the term for which he was enlisted is hereby discharged from the Service. Given under my hand this 17th day [image damaged and indecipherable]

S/ Ch. Febiger, Lieut. Colo.

The image shows a handwritten document, likely a discharge certificate, written in cursive. The text is partially obscured by a large black redaction box. The visible text reads: "Thomas Moor a Soldier in the 2^d Virginia S. Regiment having served three years the term for which he was enlisted, is now discharged from the service given under my hand this 17th day". Below the text is a signature, which appears to be "Ch. Febiger Lieut. Colo." and a date "1786".
