<sup>1</sup> I have included this muster roll in our database because it contains the names of the Commissioned officers in the Delaware Regiment as of February 1780, the date closest that I could find to the date on which the Regiment marched South under Colo. Otho Holland Williams [BLWt2401-850] to join Horatio Gates prior to the Battle of Camden, August 15-16, 1780. While not all these officers would have come South with Williams, a number of them are known to have done so.
