

Southern Campaigns American Revolution Pension Statements & Rosters

List of Recipients of public aid in King William County Virginia in support of widows of soldiers from that County Roster 197 3

Transcribed by Will Graves

5/3/15

From [Digital Library of Virginia] King William County legislative petitions

King William March Court 1779

Betty Edwards a poor soldier's widow is allowed the sum of seventy-two pounds to be laid out in the purchase of six Barrels [of] Corn for her support & Family.

Sarah Smith widow is allowed the sum of Twelve pounds for the purchase of a Barrel Corn for her support

Thomas Peay is allowed the sum of twenty-five pounds for his support & family, he having two sons in the Continental Service

Frances Crittendon widow is allowed the sum of thirty-six pounds

Molley Gabey widow is allowed the sum of thirty-six pounds

Nancey Cook [Nancy Cook] widow is allowed the Sum of twenty-four pounds

Sukey Langston widow is allowed the sum of twenty-four pounds

Sukey Trayets widow is allowed the sum of twenty-four pounds

Sarah Mush widow is allowed the sum of twenty-four pounds

Lucy Skipper widow is allowed the sum of twenty-four pounds

Nancy Sampson widow is allowed the sum of twenty-four pounds

Tawney Freeman widow is allowed the sum of twelve pounds,

Sarah Howard widow the sum of thirty-six pounds which is ordered to be certified to the Public Treasurer

A Copy

S/ John Quarles, Junior, deputy clerk

King William June Court 1779

Salley Morris the widow of Ambrose Morris a poor soldier's wife is allowed one and a half Barrels Corn for her support & two children to the 1st day of October next, William Aylett Gent is appointed to purchase the Corn

Ambrose Kennon is allowed the sum of thirty-seven pounds 10 shillings

Disabled Betty Edwards is allowed the further sum of sixty-two pounds

Mary Hauth is allowed the sum of twenty-five pounds

[paper damaged and 1st name missing] Crawley is allowed the sum of twenty-five pounds,

Fanny [paper damaged and last name missing] the sum of twenty-five pounds

Nanney Major widow is allowed the sum of 25 pounds

Sarah Major Widow is allowed the sum of 25 pounds

Mrs. Absolam is allowed the sum of 25 pounds

Mary Ann King the wife of John King is allowed the sum of 50 pounds, which severally is ordered to be certified to the Public Treasurer for payment

A Copy

S/ John Quarles, Junior, D. C.