

Southern Campaign American Revolution Pension Statements and Rosters

Bounty Land Claim of Conrad (Conradt) Buding BLWt1268-100
Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris.

State of Pennsylvania }
County of York }

I, Conradt Buding aged Seventy six years, do, upon oath, testify and declare, that, in the year one thousand seven hundred and Eighty two I enlisted for the term of “during the war,” and served in [Charles] Armand’s Legion under the command of Colonel Armand of the [blank] line; and that I continued in the service aforesaid until the close of the war, when I was regularly discharged from the Legion commanded by Colonel Armand

I further declare, that I have never received a warrant for the Bounty Land promised to me on the part of the United States; nor have I assigned or transferred my claim in any manner whatsoever: therefore, [power of attorney to Adam King follows] Conrad hisXmark Buding
[27 Feb 1828]

The following are from [bounty-land records in the Library of Virginia indexed as Buding, Conrad and Bading, Conrad. The file also contains papers relating to Conrad Steagel BLWt1301-100.]

[Parts of the online image of the following are missing where marked at * or inferred in brackets.]
Pennsylvani[a]

Yor[k] County Ss

I John W Hetrick Prothonotary of the Court of [Com]mon Pleas of said county, certify, that on the 11th day of December 1838, plenary and satisfactory evidence was a [d]duced to said Court that Conrad Buding is the son of C[on]rad Buding dec’d a soldier of General Armands Legion in the Virginia line in the Revolutionary war and that Peggy Walt, and Cathrin F Corkle[?] is the daughters an[d] that Martin Abbott is the grand son; all of which are the heirs and only legitimate heirs at law of Con[ra]d Buding deceased, who died intestate

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said Court, at York borough this 9th day of August AD 1839 J. W. Hetrick/ Prothy

Department of War, Bounty Land Office/ August 15th 1839

I certify that it appears by the records in this Office, land Warrant W. 1263 for 100 acres of land issued the 1st March 1828 to Conrad Buding, who was a private in Armands Legion and that said Warrant was delivered to the Hon’le Adam King, then a Member [of] Congress. Wm. Gordon First Clk

Auditors Office/ 12 Nov. 1839

It appears by the printed Roll in this office of Armands Corps that Conrad Bading is listed as a private in that corps. The following note is in the margin – “1782 printed in Congressional documents Conradt Buding.”
Jas E Heath Aud