[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

In re: William McIntosh -- War of Revolution.

You are advised that the Revolutionary War records of this Bureau failed to afford information, in regard to any soldier of the Georgia or Troops or residence, named William McIntosh, other than Capt. William McIntosh of the Georgia Continental Line, on account of whose services, 300 acres of bounty land was awarded on warrant No. 1552, which issued April 14, 1799, to John Wright assignee.

There are no papers on file relative to said soldier owing to the destruction of the same when the War Office was burned in November 1800, therefore there is no further data as to his services and no data as to his family on file.

Very respectfully,

S/ Washington Gardner
Commissioner
