Bounty land for Revolutionary Services -- Claim of Heirs

State of Georgia County of Liberty

I, Eliza Green Robarts Daughter and only heir at law of Major Philip Low late of the County of Liberty and State of Georgia but now deceased, do, upon oath, testify and declare, that to the best of my knowledge and belief, the said Major Philip Low was an officer in the 4th Continental Regiment of Infantry belonging to the Georgia line, on Continental establishment, during the Revolutionary War. I do further testify and declare, that I have never received a warrant from the United States for the quantity of land due the said deceased, from the United States; nor do I believe that he ever received it, or transferred his right to it in any manner during his lifetime.

Therefore, no all men by these presents, that I., Eliza Green Robarts as aforesaid, do hereby constitute and appoint Colonel Joseph Watson my true and lawful attorney, for me, and my name, to demand and receive from the Secretary of War of the United States, for the time being, a warrant for the quantity of land due in right of said deceased. And my said attorney I do hereby fully authorized and empowered to constitute and appoint, one or more substitutes or attorneys under him, for the special purpose herein expressed, and the same to revoke at will. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 7th day of December A.D. 1831.

Personally appeared before the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace, in and for the County aforesaid, the Reverend Samuel S. Law and Joseph Jones both credible and disinterested persons, who, being duly sworn, did depose and say, that they verily believe that Major Philip Low named in the within declaration, signed by his daughter Eliza Green Robarts served in the Georgia line, during the Revolutionary War: that they understood that he died about 40 years since, viz. on or about the 28th day of September 1785 at the G[illegible] Island within the State of Georgia leaving a widow, and that Eliza Green Robarts is the only surviving daughter and is the reputed and only heir at law of him, the said Major Philip Lowe.
