[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

[p 3: In Beaufort County, NC, on September 4, 1804, Hans Patten and Ann Cambreling [or Ann Camberling], "the only Children and heirs of John Patten, Esquire late Colonel in the North Carolina Line of Continental Troops" granted a power of attorney to William Blacklidge of New Bern, to pursue they are claims for bounty land due to their father for his services in the revolution.

The image shows two handwritten signatures in cursive script. The top signature reads "Hans Patten" and the bottom signature reads "Ann Cambreling". Both signatures are written in dark ink on a light background. The signatures are positioned above a vertical line that runs down the right side of the page.

[Facts in file: A warrant for 500 acres was issued March 14, 1805 in favor of the two heirs named above; the rest of the papers in this file are letters to and from the War Department from ancestors seeking information about Col. Patten.]
