<sup>1</sup> I could not find that this application ever made it into the collection now held in the National Archives. Consequently, I have assigned it a number for indexing purposes for use in this database. Since the veteran served from North Carolina, the number assigned to him is "NC18" indicating that he is the 18th veteran from NC whose application was either (1) never filed in Washington; (2) filed in Washington but somehow omitted from inclusion in the microfilmed collections available on Footnote.com and/or HeritageQuest.com; or (3) for some reason is only found in the local County court records.

<sup>2</sup> Mr. Smith indicates: "The application is part of the Franklin Co., Ga. Ordinary Court Records and has been published in the 'Georgia DAR Historical Collection' that I found in the Georgia Archives."
