[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

I, Alexander C Shackelford<sup>2</sup> of the County of King & Queen, and State of Virginia, do hereby certify that I enlisted on the 3rd day of February in the year 1777, as a fifer in the revolutionary war, under Captain Charles Collier: On the 28th of the same month (February) I marched with Captain Collier's recruits, to Williamsburg and was placed in the Continental barracks, where I remained till the completion of the new magazine, or State barracks, when I went into said barracks, and remained therein, till the spring of the year 1778. Immediately after the receipt of orders to march the troops from Williamsburg to the North Captain Collier resigned, and Captain Abner Crump took command of the company in his stead: In the spring of the year 1778, I marched under the command of Captain Abner Crump, attached to the First Virginia Regiment commanded by Colonel George Gibson, to Valley Forge where I was inoculated for the smallpox. From Valley Forge I went to Monmouth, from Monmouth to Stony Point; from thence, to White Plains, and from thence, back to Philadelphia; where I staid ten or twelve days, and then returned to Virginia. After remaining with my friends in King & Queen, on a visit, three or four weeks, I went to Williamsburg to obtain my discharge, (having served out my tour of 3 years and a little more) and was sent by the then Governor, to Colonel Allison, who was then in command at Petersburg. I obtain my discharge from Colonel Allison, in July 1781, but was taken very sick immediately after and remained in Petersburg till all the troops left there for the South. I then returned to King & Queen, where I have resided, ever since. I knew Thomas Slaughter, of the County of New Kent, very well: He entered the service in the revolutionary war, as a Sergeant in Captain Abner Crump's Company, in which, I was, myself, a fifer, and which company was attached to the 1st Virginia Regiment, commanded by Colonel George Gibson. The said Thomas Slaughter marched with his company in the spring of the year 1778, to Valley Forge: There, the said Thomas Slaughter was promoted to a Lieutenant, and held that commission until his return to Virginia, in the spring of 1781. I was under the command of said Thomas Slaughter, who was Lieutenant of the company to which I was attached, at Valley Forge, Monmouth, Stony Point, and White Plains, and returned with him to Philadelphia. I left the said Thomas Slaughter at Lancaster, in Pennsylvania; and came on with Major Meriwether [probably Major Thomas Meriwether] to Virginia. When I went to Petersburg to get my discharge, I there saw the said Thomas Slaughter, in command, as a Lieutenant, and know that he marched from thence, with the troops, to the South. I never saw him afterwards, and do not know what became of him. As witness, my hand and seal, this 7th day of November, A.D. 1833.

In addition to what I have already stated in the foregoing affidavit, in relation to the services of Lieutenant Thomas Slaughter, I think it proper to add, that I omitted in the said affidavit, to mention, that the said Thomas Slaughter, also acted as commissary to his company during the whole time we were to the North together, and I left him in the performance of that duty, when I left the Company in Lancaster, in Pennsylvania, on my return to Virginia, as witness my hand and seal, this 7th day of November A.D. 1833

Pension Office January 10, 1850

Sir,

I have examined the papers in the case of Thomas Slaughter, deceased. It appears that as a Quarter Master he received a certificate for the balance of his full pay amounting to £31.2.0 Virginia currency and that he was a Quarter Master to General Stevens' [Edward Stevens'] Brigade in October 1781. But it does not appear that he belonged to anyone of the regiments for which the Act of July 5, 1832 provides, nor does it ever appear (except by the testimony of Alexander C Shackelford) that he was an officer in any Regiment. The affidavit of Shackelford is not entitled to any credit whatever. He alleges that Slaughter was a Lieutenant in Crump's Company in 1778, and continued in it until 1780, but the fact is not so. Slaughter's name cannot be found upon the rolls of that or any other Company of Gibson's Regiment to which Crump's Company belonged. To entitle his heirs to half pay, it must be shown that Slaughter belonged to one of the regiments mentioned in the Act of July 5, 1832 and that he served until he became a supernumerary. Commutation cannot be allowed unless it can be clearly shown that he served in one of the regiments designated in the law of 1832 up to the 22nd April 1783.

I am Sir respectfully

your obedient servant

J L Edwards, Commissioner of Pensions
