[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

State of South Carolina, Union District

On this 4th day of October 1832, personally appeared in open court before the Judge of the court of common pleas and sessions now sitting for the district aforesaid, Mordecai Chandler, a resident of Union District, aged 70 years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832: that he entered the service of the United States of the following name to offer service and served as here in stated.

I enlisted for the term of two years in Newberry District South Carolina under Captain Dickson [sic, Dixon?] in the Regiment commanded by Colonel Samuel Jack of the state of Georgia in October 1777 and marched to Petersburg [sic, Purrysburg] in Georgia; thence to Fort Wells on the of Ogeechee [River] where we remained six or seven months from which place we marched to Augusta and thence to East Florida and going as far as St. Mary's River we returned to a place called Midway Meeting house, between Sunbury and Savannah where I was discharged by Col. Samuel Jack, the governor of Georgia having released the remainder of my term of enlistment on account of my tour to Florida. Shortly after my return I joined the company of Captain James Liles [James Lisle] in the Regiment commanded by Colonel John Liles [John Lisle] and marched to Augusta and turning down the river proceeded as far as the Briar Creek – where we met the British Army [March 3, 1779] and retreated before them back to Augusta and crossing the river to our station at the Shoal, across from Augusta where we lay about three months until our tour had expired and I was regularly discharged. In 1779, I again joined the Captain Liles in Colonel Liles Regiment and marched to Bacon's Bridge on Ashley River and having made several excursions through the country, we marched to a place called Quaquaw [Caw Caw?] Swamp near to Stono, from whence we marched to the Battle at Stono [June 20, 1779], in which I was engaged, and after the battle we returned to the camp at the swamp where we remained until I was discharged. I then joined Captain Roebuck's [Benjamin Roebuck's] company in Colonel John Thomas's Regiment and marched to North Carolina where we joined General Sumpter [Thomas Sumter] and arrived at Ramsour's Mill a short time after the battle was over [June 20, 1780]. I then fell in with Clarke [Elijah Clarke] and Shelby [Isaac Shelby] and was shortly afterwards at the battle at the Iron Works or Cedar Springs [Wofford's Iron Works or 2nd Cedar Springs, August 8, 1780] – and then at the battle of Musgrove's Mill [August 19, 1781] – we then retreated to North Carolina where I joined my old regiment under Colonel Liles and marched back to Newberry South Carolina where, on a scouting party, I was taken a prisoner and carried to the jail at Ninety Six – where I lay until the British retreated to Charleston where I was taken and placed on board a prison ship—where I remained about two months and was exchanged. On my return I joined Colonel Purvis [Lt. Col. John Purvis] and performed a tour of duty in the lower country as a volunteer against the out layers and Tories. I then joined a volunteer company under Captain Williams [possibly Capt. Daniel Williams of the Little River Regiment of Whig militia] for six months and continued patrolling and scouting until the final cessation of hostilities and was finally discharged. I have no documentary evidence of my services. In answer to the interrogatories put by the court high answer. 1 & 2. I was born in Culpepper County Virginia on the 15th of May 1762 but have no record of my age. 3. I lived in Newberry district when called into service and have lived principally in South Carolina ever since the war. 4 & 5. See within. 6. I got one discharge in writing which is lost. 7. I refer to the Reverend Willis Walker and Major Thomas Young<sup>1</sup> to prove my good character.

Sworn to and attested that day and year of for said.
