State of Tennessee Lawrence County

On this 28th day of December 1844 personally appeared before me, William H. Edmiston a Justice of the peace of said County Elisabeth Daniel, a resident of said County in said State, aged, as she believes, eighty-two years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of such provisions as have been made by act of Congress: That she is the widow of Joab Daniel, who was a soldier in the wars of the American Revolution, that her said husband served in various places in North Carolina & at Charleston South Carolina, at which last place he was present at a [2 or more indecipherable words] when peace was made just before his return to New Bern North Carolina where he resided before he went into the Army, and after his return for many years. This affiant, by reason of her great age & infirmities & the troubles which have afflicted her is unable to remember the names of the officers & places with home & where her said husband served particularly: She remembers that he served one tour of duty under Captain Rickerson Weeks & that he was long absent & that on his return home from Charleston by sea the vessel was dismasted & sunk by which disaster he lost his discharge & that she has no documentary evidence of these facts whatever.

This affiant further saith that she is the reason of her said in infirmities & loss of memory unable to state the precise time of her marriage, but she was married to her husband before the commencement of said war; that her said husband died about two years after the big shake which she believes is 32 years ago; that she has remained a widow ever since as will more fully appear by the proof hereto annexed, her husband served about two years in all.

State of Tennessee Franklin County

On this 7th day of June in the year of our Lord 1852 personally appeared before the subscriber an acting Justice of the Peace Mrs. Elizabeth Daniel aged ninety-one years old past, and being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following Declaration. That she is the widow of Job Daniel who served in the North Carolina Line in the war of the revolution and also in the militia of the said State, that he first went from home to Kingston [sic, Kinston] in the State of North Carolina and enlisted to serve affiant thinks for the term of the war but only being gone twelve months he served only that length of time, but previous to this tour of Service he served two tours of three months each, that all this service was done after affiant was married to the above stated Job Daniel in the State of North Carolina that he did the above service the affiant thinks it was done in the years 1781 and two, Affiant further declares that she was married in the year 1778 in the County of ___ in the State of North Carolina. Affiant further declares that her husband Job Daniel before mentioned died in the year 1814 leaving her a widow. That she has not intermarried but still continues the widow of Job Daniel. Affiant further declares that she has no papers nor evidence in her possession by which to establish the service of her husband's service, nor her marriage but hopes to establish the same by the proof accompanying this Declaration as otherwise furnished.
