I John Kirby of Owen County Kentucky state that I was a regular soldier in the Virginia Continental Line during the war of Revolution and was well acquainted with the late Henry Gains and do well know that he was in the Battle of Peters Burg & the Isle of white Church and also the Battle of little York on the 19th of Oct 1783 he states he believes the said Henry Gains belonged to the third Va Regiment under Capt Christopher Blackburn and he thinks commanded by Collonel Heath [sic: William Heth] Given from under my hand this 14th day of March 1838

NOTES:

The date "19th of Oct 1783" is evidently a mistaken reference to the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown on 19 Oct 1781. There was no battle on 19 Oct 1783 or at Isle of Wight Church.

The claim for a pension was rejected because of insufficient evidence of service.

On 14 March 1844 Catherine Gains was said to be 90, and she stated that John Kirby had been dead several years. The file includes a letter dated 3 Feb 1855 by H. H. Gaines, administrator of Catherine Gaines, deceased.
