[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

State of Illinois, County of St. Clair

On this the third day of June 1833 personally appeared before the County Commissioners Court of the County of St. Clair and State of Illinois the same being a Court of Record, Conrad Goodner, resident of the County and State aforesaid who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832. That he was born on the 29th of November in the year 1756, and that on the 29th of November ensuing he will be 77 years of age, that when about the age of 12 years his mother told him of his age, and when near 30 years old at his marriage he not being able to write requested his Father in law to note his age on a scrap of paper which he now has – that he was drafted in the Army of the United States in the year 1778 and about 1st November with Captain John Griffy [John Griffin] and served in the Regiment commanded by Colonel Taxton [sic, Lt. Col. James Thackston? or Saxton?] and Lieutenant Colonel Lightel [sic, Archibald Lytle], that he was drafted for nine months and continued in service during the whole time and was discharged in August of the year 1779, that during the last three months of his said service, having been a short time on account of ill health confined to the hospital at the Black Swamp he according to orders served as a waggoner under a Mr. Davis wagon master – that when he entered the service he resided in Hillsborough Orange County in the State of North Carolina, that he marched from thence in the direct route to Charleston in the State of South Carolina, that while waggoner at the encampment of General Lincoln, the battle of Stono River was fought – he further states that he since rendered his discharge to Colonel Lytle, as tantamount to a power of attorney for the purpose of receiving his pay through the medium of Colonel Lytle, that he has no documentary evidence and that he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service. He further states that after the conclusion of the Revolutionary War he lived in Guilford County North Carolina and also in the State of Tennessee, from thence he removed to Randolph County in the State of Illinois and now resides in the County of St. Clair and State last mentioned. He further states that James Glass, Cornelius Gooding & Matthew Roach to whom he is known in his present neighborhood can testify to his character for veracity and their belief of his services as a soldier of the revolution.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state. the above is my amended declaration according to the instructions of the Department.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid before me in open Court.

1756 Zet Eunnath Guttener gob 29th Nov 1756 [there is more but it is 'greek' to me. I think that those who can read German may well be able to decipher the birth date and maiden name of Elizabeth, the wife of Conrad, as one of the entries looks to the totally clueless eye as a reference to her] [evidently, the claim of the children was rejected, since there was no provision for pensions for children of veterans and nothing in the file indicates that the children tried to get the pension to which their mother would have been entitled had she filed for pension after surviving Conrad.]

[Veteran was pensioned at the rate of $30 per annum commencing March 4th, 1831, for service as a private for 9 months in the North Carolina militia.]
