[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Also, the handwriting of the original scribes often lends itself to varying interpretations. Users of this database are urged to view the original and to make their own decision as to how to decipher what the original scribe actually wrote. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. Folks are free to make non-commercial use this transcript in any manner they may see fit, but please extend the courtesy of acknowledging the transcriber—besides, if it turns out the transcript contains mistakes, the resulting embarrassment will fall on the transcriber. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Please call them to my attention.]

Lancaster District South Carolina

On this 28th day of February A.D. 1857 personally appeared before me Margaret Lemmond a resident of the District of Lancaster in the State of South Carolina aged 67 years who being duly sworn according to law doth on her oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the Acts of Congress passed July 4th 1836, July 7th 1838 and subsequent acts applicable to widows of deceased soldiers of the Revolution, -- That she is the daughter of William Lemmond who was a private and Sergeant in the War of the Revolution and served in one or the other capacity during the greater part of the said war. That he served as Sergeant for some time in a company commanded by Captain Charles Polk of Mecklenburg County North Carolina for the proof of which service she refers to the Company muster rolls of Captain Charles Polk now on file in the Pension office in the case of Philipena Polk widow [of] said Captain Charles Polk.¹ She further declares that her said father was married to Ann Ghent in the year 1788, in Mecklenburg County North Carolina by one John McCorkle a Justice of the peace that about the year 1810, her father William Lemmond died leaving his widow affiant's mother surviving him with one child, this affiant.

That affiant's mother remained the widow of the aforesaid William Lemmond until the year 1812 when she married one Andrew Walker a Revolutionary Soldier, who also died in 1845, leaving affiant's mother a widow the second time, and she remained a widow until the 18 day of February 1847 when she died, all of which will more fully appear by reference to the proof hereto annexed.

Sworn to and subscribed on the day and year above written before me.
