State of Tennessee }
Greene County } Court of Pleas & quarter Sessions

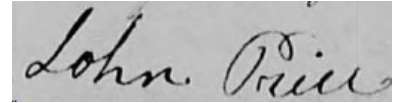

On this 23^d.day of April 1833 personally appeared in open Court before the Justices of the Court of Pleas & quarter Sessions of said County (being a Court of Record) now sitting, John Price, a resident of said County of Greene, in the state aforesaid, aged seventy four years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. – That he was born in Essex County in the state of Virginia, on the 21st. of May 1759. as appears from his Father's Register, now in the possession of this applicant – That he enlisted in the Army of the United States in the year 1775 with Captain Spencer, and served in the 4th Regiment of the Virginia line, under the following named officers – The Company in which he served was commanded by the above named Capt Spencer, and the Regiment by Colonel Stephens – the names of the other officer's he is unable, at this remote period, to recollect. He enlisted at Orange Court house in the State of Virginia (at which place he resided at the time of entering the service) for the term of two years and a half, as well as he now recollects, and continued in the service, uninterruptedly, until after the defeat of Cornwallis [19 Oct 1781], being upwards of six years– That the two first years of this period, he served as a private soldier – as nearly as he can recollect, but owing to his advanced age, and consequent failure of memory he cannot possibly state the exact period, or be precise in relation to dates – after the expiration of said two years he was first promoted to the grade of ensign in Capt Little's company and served as such for about the space of eighteen months probably more, the precise time he cannot state, and was then advanced to the grade of Lieutenant in the Commissary Department under Col. Thomas and served as such until after the defeat of Cornwallis (being about two years and a half as nearly as he can recollect) when he was discharged. – That he obtained a regular Discharge signed, as he believes, by Col Abisha Thomas and Gen'l. Stephens [sic: Adam Stephen], but that said Discharge, as well as his Commissions as Ensign & Lieutenant, together with many other valuable private papers, he lost by accident not long after he left the service, and this is one reason why he cannot be more specific as to dates, having no written memmoranem to refresh his recollection –

He further states, that from Orange Court house when he first enlisted the Regiment to which he belonged was marched to Williamsburg in the state of Virginia, and was then stationed to defend that point – While at Williamsburg he was ordered to march to Long Bridge town, in the state of Virginia, and there had an engagement with the Brittish, and defeated them [Battle of Great Bridge, 9 Dec 1775] – thence he marched to Norfolk and remained there until that place was burned [by Lord Dunmore, 1 Jan 1776] – thence he returned to Williamsburg again, and then remained until our Regiment was ordered to the North to join the troops of Gen'l. Washington. he marched to some town in Pennsylvania, the name not recollected, he remained there some time, but before reaching Washington's troops he received orders to change our direction and repair to the South to aid Genl. [Benjamin] Lincoln, then in South Carolina – and accordingly did so. That while at the South he was engaged in several battles, and various skirmishes with the Brittish forces – That he was in a battle at a place called Stono [Battle of Stono Ferry, 20 Jun 1779] – That he was present and engaged in the battle when Genl. [Horatio] Gates was defeated near Camden [16 Aug 1780]. – He was also engaged in the battle of Eutaw Springs, and was there wounded – He was also at the battle of Guilford [sic: Guilford Courthouse NC, 15 Mar 1781]. In addition to these, he was also engaged in several skirmishes and scouting expeditions the particular of which cannot now recollect.

He also states that he was duly commissioned both an Ensign and Lieutenant, but that said commissions have been lost as above stated, and he is unable now to state by whom said commissions were signed, owing to the failure of his memory. He further states that the only person now living that he knows of, who knew of his having been an officer in the Revolutionary War, is Joseph Dunlap [pension application S38676], a citizen of said County of Greene, Isaac Justis Esqr, and the Rev'd. Stephen Brooks, who are also residents of said County of Green, all of whom can testify as to his character for veracity – He further states he moved to the County of Greene aforesaid about the year 1812 and has resided in said County ever since. He further states that his name was placed on the pension Roll of the agency of East Tennessee in the year 1819. as he believes, and was continued on said Roll a little upwards of five months, and was stricken from the same under the act of Congress of May 1st 1820. as he has been informed. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and he declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of any Agency in any state, only on that of the agency in the State of Tennessee.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid

Personally appeared in open Court Joseph Dunlap, a resident of Greene County aforesaid, aged Eighty five years who being duly sworn according to law states, that he was a soldier of the Revolution, that after having been engaged in the service for some time at the North, that his Regiment was ordered to march to the South, that upon reaching a place called the Cheraw hills in South Carolina, where our Regiment was stationed some time, we were joined by the 4th Regiment of Virginia troops, and remained there together, encamped, for perhaps the space of three months or upwards. He further states that there was belonging to one of the companies of said Regiment, a Lieutenant whose name was John Price, that he saw him, and heard his name called daily for nearly all the above space of time, and although he had not an intimate acquaintance with said Price, yet he knew him very well when he saw him, and is well satisfied that the above named applicant is the identical John Price with whom he was acquainted in the service during the Revolutionary War and who was Lieutenant in said 4th Regiment commanded by Col Stephens. He is satisfied that said Price ranked, and acted as Lieutenant in said Regiment. After leaving the Cheraw hills our Regiments met again at a place called Stono bridge [sic] within twelve miles of Charleston at that place we separated, and did not meet again. He cannot state how long said Price was in the service or how long he served as Lieutenant, but has understood from soldiers who served in the same Regiment with said Price, that he served as Lieutenant for perhaps between two and three years, and was in the service in all upwards of six years.
