

Southern Campaign American Revolution Pension Statements & Rosters

Pension Application of Jonathan Smith R9777

Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris

[Smith's application is not in his file. The following report is by US District Attorney Washington G. Singleton, who investigated many pensioners and applicants from present West Virginia. For details, see my appendix to the pension application of David W. Sleeth (S6111).]

Jonathan Smith. Applicant.

On the 6th Nov. 1834 this Applicant stated that during the war of the Revolution he lived in Taggarts Vally [sic: Tygart Valley]. that he was out a Spying two or three days, and he was out one scout for the week. – he once helped bury some dead that were killed by the Indians, and was sent on to Staunton as an express. – and this comprises all the services he done. he gave the same statement now given to William McCord of Pocahontas who sent his declaration – and who said he would get the money for him in two months. – his Declaration was made in March 1834. he swore to it before Gen'l. Booth a Justice of Randolph Cty.

A Copy

W. G Singleton Nov. 27 1834