State of Virginia

Bedford County Sct 1833

on this 26 day of October 1833 personally appeared before me Samuel Mitchell a justice of the peace for the County of Bedford Augustine Leftwich Sn'r. a resident of the County of Bedford aged eighty nine years and two months & 16 days who being First duly Sworn according to Law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benifit of the act of Congress passed June Seventh 1832

That he entered the Service of the united States as a Lieutenant about the Last of may or first of June Seventeen hundred and Eighty of that year That he rendezvous at Newlondon in the County of Bedford [sic: New London now in Campbell County], and marched from Newlondon about the first of June 1780 as well as he can now recollect under the Command of Thomas Leftwich as Captain himself as Lieut and Daniel Mitchell as Ensign in said Company. That from Newlondon they marched to Dixes ferry on Stanton River in the County of [blank: Dix's Ferry in western Halifax County on the Dan rather than on the Staunton River] That they crossed the river at said ferry and marched on to north Carolina to hillsborough in said State, that they rendezvous again at Hillsborough and remained there six or seven weeks That I was attached to General Edward Stephen's Bagrad [sic: Edward Stevens's Brigade], but General [Horatio] Gates was the Commander in Chief. That from hillsborough we marched to the Pedee [sic: Pee Dee River] and crossed over said River into South Carolina. we were then marched on to deep River and from deep River [sic] we were marched to Rugleys mills [sic: Rugeley's Mill about 12 mi N of Camden]; from Rugleys mills marched on toward Camden in South Carolina; and was attacked Early one morning by the British army under the command of Lord Cornwallis [Battle of Camden, 16 Aug 1780] – that I was in the battle that General Gates was defeated there at that time that a part of his Troops retreated Back to Hills Borough in North Carolina with me that after arriving at Hillsborough again finding that there was not men enough there to give me any further command, I was discharged on the 12th day of September 1780 by General Edward Stephens which discharge I still have in my possession. That from the time I was called to rendezvous at New London untill my return home again I believe to be about four month. I dont think it was less than that Time.

That during that whole Tower I acted as a Lieutenant in the company of said Capt T. Leftwich in a Company of Virginia militia from Bedford County.

That shortly after my return I was promoted to Captain, and was ordered to rendezvous again at Newlondon in bedford County where I remained some time that I was ordered to march from Newlondon to Swans point [sic: Swanns Point] on James River opposit to old James Town on said River; that I passed on from Newlondon through Powatan [sic: Powhatan] County and on through petersburg on the appomattox River in Dinwiddie County to Swans Points–; that I remained at Swans Point as well as I can now recollect between three & four weeks That after the British army left old James Town we crossed over to old James Town and marched a few miles from James Town when we received orders to go on to york Town in Virginia where the British army lay encamped and was surrounded by the french and american armys, as I was informed; That near James Town the commandant of that detachment undertook to organis the different companys – that after the Companys was organised there were found not a sufficient Number of men to give me a command; That the senior Captains took both the Commands – and that Captain John Clayton of Bedford and myself was discharged at that time we both being Junior Captain. That I received a discharge for a Tower of duty at that time, I think from Colo Wm Trigg [William Trigg] the Commandant at that place of our Regiment. That this call was in the Virginia melitia that I have lost the said discharge or mislaid it and all my commissions and do not know what has become of them. That from the time I was called out on the Second Tower of duty untill my return I do believe to be not less than Two months and upward as a Captain in said requisition

Bedford County Sc. [31 May 1834]

This day John Arthur Sen'r. [pension application W5635] of lawful age personally appeared before David W. Quarles a Justice of the peace in and for the County aforesaid and made Oath that he was called on to perform a Tower of duty from Bedford in the militia service about the last of May 1780 as well as he now recollects that the Troops was ordered to meet at Newlondon in Bedford County the place of rendezvous that after remaining there some time he marched from there about the first of June 1780 under the command of Captain Thomas Leftwich and Augustine Leftwich Sen'r as Lieuten[ant] and Daniel Mitchell as ensign that they marched from Newlondon to Dixes ferry on Stanton river from there they marched to Hillsborough in North Carolina the place of General rendezvous, that the Troop remained there between six & eight weeks that from Hillsborough they marched to Peedee and crossed said river to South Carolina & there we marched on to deep river crossed deep river and marched on to Ruggles's mills from Ruggles's mills we marched toward Camden in South Carolina and hearing of the British near there we set out before day[?] to go and attack the army and was met by the British army and I was in said battle, called Gates's defeat that Lieutenant Augustine Leftwich remained with us u[n]till we went into Battle that after the defeat I did not [missing word] where to go to and wandered about untill I got home and saw no more of Liutenant Augustine Leftwich that tour I believe from the time I set out untill my return home from that tower was not less than four months. I was again called out into service about the last of July or the first of August 1781 and rendezvoused at Newlondon Bedford County that he marched from Newlondon he believes about the first of August 1781 and marched through Petersburg in Dinwidie County to Swans point oposite to old James town on James river under the command of Capt John Trigg of Be[dford] Militia that I believe Colo. William Trigg was Colo. [of] us then that while at Swans point I saw Capt Augustin Leftwich there as a Captain in said Requisition with his company from Bedford County but do not know the length of time said Leftwich served at that time as I did not belong to his company but understood that Capt. Augustin Leftwich was discharged near old James Town as there were not men enough in his company to give him a full command and his company was taken to fill out the sen'r. captains companys
