[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

On this 4th day of September 1821 before me the Subscriber a Justice of the peace for the said County of problem personally appeared Isaac Kanedy [sic] who on his oath declares that he is the same person who formerly belonged to the company commanded by Captain John Willis and the Regiment commanded by Colonel ___<sup>1</sup> in the service of North Carolina that his name was placed on the pension roll of the State of North Carolina and was there by transformed on to the Pension list of the United States.

S/ Isaac Kennedy, T his mark

Mr. Kennedy is now very old and infirm and his Memory has much failed him. He does not recollect the Colonel who commanded his Regiment: he is the same person who has been drawing a pension at this office for many years.

S/ J. A. Cameron,
Agent

[The lack of information in this file probably is explained by the veteran having been pensioned under an early pension act for wounds sustained in action. The records relating to pension acts prior to 1818 were all destroyed either in the fire of 1800 or the fire of 1814.]
