[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of South Carolina Anderson District: On this 5th day of March 1833 John Looney personally appeared in open Court being the Court of Sessions and Common Pleas now sitting for said District and being duly sworn declares on oath as follows in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

This Deponent was born in Bedford County Virginia in 1754 -- Was living in that part of South Carolina now known as Spartanburg when he first entered the service which was as a Volunteer under Captain Nichols during the Snow Camps¹ and when he served forty-two days -- He was afterwards engaged under various militia officers for short terms of service but cannot recollect very distinctly the term or officers --

On the 24th of December (he thinks in) 1777 he enlisted under Captain Benjamin Tutt in his Independent Company for three years with whom he continued in active service until his Captain was called on for a detachment and furnished twenty-five men of whom this Deponent was one and under his Lieutenant Thomas Farrar² marched to Savannah and in the Siege³ there was wounded in the ankle which disabled him for service -- asked for a discharge having been there attached to Colonel Laurens [John Laurens] Infantry but was informed he had his discharge without having it in writing -- was never after in service -- his wound ulcerated -- suffered for forty four years when to save his life his leg was cut off and he now goes on a wooden leg -- He has long since made proof of his service and has received for many years a pension of Twenty-one Dollars forty two cents from the General Government which was afterwards increased to thirty four Dollars -- His certificates are in the possession of a friend but will be procured and more particularly referred. If the Department can be satisfied of his service & give to him the benefit of the late act of Congress, he will cheerfully relinquish every claim whatever to his pension from the United States or from his own State from which he has also been some time in the receipt of a Pension.

State of South Carolina Anderson District

John Looney of the State & District aforesaid appeared personally before me and makes oath to the following statement by way of amending his Declaration made in open Court the 5th of March 1833 in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress June 7th 1832. His first tour set forth in his Declaration under Captain Nichols as a Volunteer was in November 1775 for forty two days which terminated as he well recollects on Christmas Eve of that Year. In his original Declaration he alludes to his having served various tours which could not be set forth with entire distinctness nor did he suppose it necessary on account of his succeeding enlistment for three years. But he is able to state that the very day he enlisted with Tutt on the 24th of December 1777 was the last day of one of those tours under Captain Robert Lusk which had commenced in September previous (1777) and during which time they were stationed at Fort Rutledge on Keowee River protecting the Frontier against incursions from the Cherokees --

On the 24th of December 1777 he enlisted for three years as stated under Tutt with whom he continued until detached with his Lieutenant Farrar (who was lately alive and some where in Alabama and marched to Savannah at the Siege of which on the 9th of October 1779 he was wounded and shortly after discharged being wholly unable to do duty.

His service therefore may be regarded as follows

First tour November 1775 until Christmas Eve 42 days

Second Tour September 1777 until 24 December id say 3 months

Enlistment for 3 years though he served only from 24th of December 1777 until the 9th of October 1779 say 1 yr. 9 mos 15

Thus making in all of actual service which he is able to enumerate specifically 2 years 1 month 27 days though there were various intermediate tours of shorter periods as heretofore declared --

The Declaration having been returned with the single requisition that the term of service should be set forth anything further is deemed unnecessary.

Surgeon's Affidavit

State of South Carolina Anderson District June 5th 1837

It is hereby certified, that John Looney a soldier in the company of Captain B. Tutt and

Colonel Laurens Regiment of the United States of the Revolution is rendered incapable of performing the duty of a soldier, by reason of wounds or other injuries inflicted while he was actually in service aforesaid, and in the line of his duty, viz. during an engagement with the British troops.

By satisfactory evidence and accurate examination, it appears on the 9th day of October in the year 1779 being engaged with the British troops at or near a place called Savannah in the district or territory of Georgia he received a wound by an owner [?]⁴ ball in his ankle joint, the result of which was an ill conditioned & frequently foul ulcer for thirty or forty years, when finally from frequent hemorrhages and the malignant character of the sore, amputation of the leg became indispensable to the preservation of his life. We have seen his leg and witnessed his suffering from it frequently previous to the operation. It was taken off just below the knee on or about the 10th day of December 1824; and he is hereby not only incapacitated for military duty, but, in the opinion of the undersigned, is totally disabled from obtaining his assistance from manual labor.

State of South Carolina

Be it remembered that on the twenty ninth day of September, before me Joseph Grisham Notary Public & ex officio a Magistrate for the District of Pickens in the State aforesaid, Personally appeared John Looney a person to me well known a Pensioner of the United States who was a Soldier in the War of the Revolution (and was wounded in the service). And made oath, that he was wounded at the siege of Savannah under General Lincoln [Benjamin Lincoln]. That he received one musket ball in his neck which was extracted and the wound cured. The other musket ball passed through the ankle of his left leg -- That the wound was incurable, and after suffering forty four years two months & one day he had his leg cut off below the knee on the 10th day of December 1823 and that he is the same John Looney of Pendleton District to whom has been granted Pensions of various amounts from about seventeen dollars per year to greater amounts as his disability increased. That for several years his pay as an invalid has not been received except about four years pay which he understood was paid to him by one A. Ray Esquire -- He now lives in Pickens District South Carolina

To the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled

Your most respectful petitioner begs leave to State, that early in the winter of 1777 during the War of the revolution, he entered the regular service of the United States for three years in Captain B. Tutt's Company under command of Colonel Laurens and General Lincoln, and that, on the 9th of October 1779, while engaged in action with the enemy at Savannah Georgia was severely wounded in the ankle by a ball, producing great pain and suffering with ulcerated sores for forty odd years. For the preservation of life it was deemed necessary in the year 1824, to amputate the leg. The statement of this fact is more fully shown by the certificate from the pension office accompanying this Memorial marked No. 1.

Your petitioner's name was placed on the revolutionary Invalid pension roll in the year

1808, at the rate of $21.42 per annum: And under the general law, "to increase the pensions of invalids in certain cases approved April 24, 1816" The invalid pension was increased at the rate of $34.12 per annum. And by reference to said act 1816, it will be perceived, that, under the first Section a private for total disability, or disability of the highest degree, a pension of $8 per month, was directed to be approved. Had your petitioner been apprised of the Act 24th of April 1816, and application had been made after the total disability occurred "December 10, 1824" see Surgeons' Certificate No. 1 a full pension would have been allowed, But not having none of the Act April 24, 1816 until the year 1837, when application was made through his attorney Alexander Ray of Washington for said act And to the application then made, the Commissioner of Pension replies No. 2 "If he (John Looney) can show that the loss of his leg was the necessary consequence of the wound which he received at the battle of Savannah, he will be entitled to a full pension" that he is $8 per month.

When the surgeons' certificate No. 1 was presented in conformity with the Commissioner's instructions showing the time when the disability occurred, and upon a re-examination of the case, as per letter No. 3 June 17 1837, the Commissioner discovered "the law which authorized him to increase in certain cases had expired."

Upon a review of the claim, it evidently appears, that under the Act April 24, 1816, John Looney would have been entitled to receive $8 per month from the 10th of December 1824 when the amputation of the leg became necessary. Had application been made at that time, or at the time it was made in April 1837, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Pensions -- if the act authorized the increase had not, having expired by limitation.

Your petitioner has most respectfully stated the reason for not having applied earlier, and shown the date of the amputation of his leg. And now prays, that his name be directed to be placed on the revolutionary invalid pension roll at the rate which the act of April 24, 1816 would have entitled him to receive, upon the evidence produced to the Commissioner of Pensions as per copy No. 1 at the rate of $8 per month, commencing on the 10th of December 1824 in lieu of the present invalid pension, and to continue during life, deducting therefrom the amount of the payments, as an invalid pensioner at the rate of $34.12 from the 10th of December 1824.

All of which is most respectfully submitted to Congress

Petition of John Looney kept praying Compensation for Services during the Revolutionary war Pensions

Samuel Cherry

Granted

[p 6]

The State of South Carolina Pendleton District } To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina. The Humble petition of John Looney Sheweth that he was wounded in the service of his Country at the battle of Savannah on the 9th of October 1779 and that your petitioner although in the Regular Service of this State never obtained a pension until 1784 as the records of your Honorable body will show during which interval your petitioner was supported by the Charity of his friends. Your petitioner begs leave further to State that the wounds which he received during the Revolutionary Struggle have grown worse with the increasing infirmities of Old age and that he is not now able to Contribute any thing towards a Support by his own labour and as the pension which he now receives is not Sufficient to afford him a subsistence he prays your Honorable body to grant him the arrearages from the time of his being disabled until his pension was obtained which he is persuaded your Honorable body will think he is entitled to that he may be enabled to spend the short remnant of his days in Comparative Comfort. Hoping that your Honorable body will not refuse this small pittance your petitioner (now that he can do no more) will offer up his prayers with as much devotion as in youth he poured out his blood for the liberty and prosperity of his Country.
