That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein after stated to wit – That he was drafted out of a company commanded by Captain Charles Callaway in the County of Bedford where he then resided and was marched to New London in the County of Campbell [in Bedford County until 1782] where he served a tour of three months employed in guarding some Tories then confined in the Jail and other houses there, the guard was part of the time under the command of Captain Cotterall [sic: John Cotrell] and the other part of said tour under the command of Capt Nathan Reid of the Regular army. he served principally under the latter Officer. the month and year is not distinctly recollected when he was regularly discharged, but does not recollect whether it was in writing. if so it is lost or mislaid. this discharge was given by [blank]

That during that tour of duty he arrested and secured [blank] a deserter and delivered him to Captain William Reid who knew him to be a deserter who had enlisted in the Army of the United States during the war, and for which by the rules and regulations then in force he became entitled to a credit for a three months tour of duty. In 1781, then too residing in the county of Bedford he was drafted out of a militia company commanded by [blank] to go to North Carolina against the British commanded by Lord Cornwallis; before however he joined the American Army under the command of General Green [sic: Nathanael Greene] he enlisted as a volunteer in a company commanded by Cap. Jacob Moon, the ensign Thomas Lumpkin, and was then attached to a regiment of riflemen commanded by Col. Charles Lynch. He was marched through many parts of North Carolina with Colo. Washingtons [William Washington's] corps of light horse, between the armies of Green & Cornwallis reconnoitering and was in the Battle of Guilford [Guilford Courthouse NC, 15 Mar 1781]. this tour commenced early in January 1781 and ended in April of the same year making three months when he was regularly discharged by [blank] by order of [blank] if in writing it is lost or mislaid. He has no register of his age but recollects his parents telling him that he was born in Lancaster County Virginia on the 15th day of December 1761, and when very young his father removed to the county of Bedford, where the Declarant has resided ever since. that he has no documentary evidence by which he can prove the facts required, nor any living person save Henry Adams [pension application W5595] by whose evidence he can prove some of the facts above set forth. He hereby relinquishes his every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

There being no clergyman in the neighbourhood of the Declarant of age sufficient to speak on oath of the transactions of the Revolutionary War, we Henry Brown [probably pension application S8098] and Henry Adams of Bedford County and State of Virginia citizens residing neighbours to Thomas Pullen the Declarant do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with the said Thomas Pullen who has subscribed & sworn to the above Declaration, and believe him to be a man of truth and of the age he states in the above declaration, and that he is reputed & believed in the neighbourhood where he resides to have been a soldier of the revolution and that we concur in that opinion. Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid before the Court aforesaid.

Answer. altho' regularly discharged I cannot recollect whether the discharges were verbal or in writing, if in writing they have been mislaid or lost and were given the first by Cotterall, the other by Nathan Reid.

7th State the names of persons to whom you are known in you present neighbourhood who can testify as to your character for veracity and belief of your having been a Soldier of the Revolution. Answer Henry Brown & Henry Adams.

NOTES:

The reference by William Arthur to Thomas Pullen as a Captain suggests that Pullen was an officer after the Revolutionary War.

A Treasury-Department document indicates that the administrator of Thomas Pullen's estate received the final pension payment up 31 Jan 1844, the date of his death.
