This day [26 Apr 1832] came before me the Revt William Hickman aged 80 dd, & made oath that he was acquainted with Abraham Bailey during the revolution residing within a mile of said Bailey in Chesterfield County Virginia and know that said Bailey entered the continal service of the United States as a private soldier and marched from the neighbourhood, and did not return untill the close of the ware & it was generally known & understood said Bailey served as a Continental soldier untill the end & close of the war which fact has never been questioned
