On this 16th day of August 1832 personally appeared in open court before me, Samuel Powell, one of the circuit judges, of law and equity in and for the state of Tennessee and for the first judicial circuit in the circuit court now sitting, Arthur Scott, a resident of the county and state aforesaid in the said county and state, aged eighty two years who being first duly sworn according to law who doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 that he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as hereunto stated.

He lived in Cumberland County, Virginia at which place he was drafted in the spring of 1778. He thinks in March he enlisted under Captain Charles Flemming [sic, Fleming] for one year the name of the Col. and number of the regiment not recollected. Rendezvoused at Goochland Court House marched to the north joined General Washington's army in the neighborhood of Monmouth. He was in the battle of Monmouth which took place in June 1778.<sup>b</sup> He thinks he was put under the command of Gen'l Greene [Nathanael Greene] and marched to Richmond Virginia and was there honorably discharged. The discharge was signed by Captain Charles Fleming which was burnt afterward when he got his house burnt. He cannot give a detailed account of the Country through which he marched or the circumstances of the as impaired as his memory is very imperfect he served one year

He then moved to Surry County North Carolina<sup>c</sup> he then Rec'd a Captain's Commission in the militia which he thinks was signed by Governor Martin and countersigned by Gen'l Martin Armstrong and dated sometime in the spring of 1780 he thinks in September he took command of a company of militia rendezvoused at Shallow ford of Adkin [sic, Yadkin] River and joined Col. Joseph Williams's Regiment. Marched into Roann [sic, Rowan] County there we Joined Genl. Davison's [sic, William Lee Davidson's] Brigade thence to the Catawby [sic, Catawba] River at the Orchard ford thence to Cowan's ford to guard it to keep British from crossing there we has a scrimmage in which Gen'l Davidson fell the brittish farried [sic, ferried] their way across the river in order to retake the prisoners that was taken at the Battle of Cowpens. We retreated to Widow Terrence's [sic, Tarrant's] there the british light horse attacked with great fury killed about thirty of us but during the engagement Col Washington [William Washington] with his troop of horse came to our relief The british immediately retreated we marched thence to Guilford there we joined Gen'l Butler, Col. Joseph Williams, myself, and two other Capts and three companies were detached as infantry to reconiter [sic, reconnoiter] the country and to keep the british from robbing and plundering the citizens marched to Whitsill [sic, Weitzel's] Mill on the reedy fork then had a scrimmage with the british in which we lost a few men and had to retreat but within a bout an hour Col Washington with his troop of horse came on the same company at Weitzel's Mill and routed the British and killed a number and took about 30 prisoners

Then were marched to Guilfan [sic, Guilford] and was in that battle in March 1781 Gen'l Greene was commander in chief and Gen'l Butler had an under command we were conquered and retreated to Troublesome Iron Works he was then discharged by Gen'l Butler and he discharged his men he served at this time three month as a Captain his discharge was burnt in his house his commission was also burnt at the same time.

Again while living at the same place as soon as I returned home which was in about sevin [sic, seven] days after the battle of Guilford which was about the 15th of March 1781 I there found a company ready drafted and waiting for me to take the command and I did that the command of said company about the time last aforesaid we rendezvoused at Surry Courthouse under Col James Martin Marched to Salem Thence to the crossroads. Thence to Wilmington there we joined Gen'l Rutherford's [Griffith Rutherford's] Brigade lay there till about the 15th of June. I was then discharged by Col. James Martin which discharge was burnt in my house when it was burnt. Served three months He served as a private 12 months and a Capt 6 making in the whole 18 months. He has no documentary evidence and he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his actual service. He hereby relinquishes any claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state. There is no clergyman in his neighborhood.
