[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

Thomas Walls?] Captain William Cherry – as well as I recollect Lieutenant __ Browning [possibly Isaac Browning], Ensign Hugh McGoffock [sic, probably Hugh McGavock<sup>1</sup>] in the County of Montgomery now wife County in the State of Virginia, that he enlisted for the term of two years and marched from the County of Montgomery aforesaid to Albemarle Barracks where the British under General Burgoyne were guarded by the American Army having taken them prisoners before, that he remained there as well as he now recollects thirteen months guarding the above named prisoners, that he marched with the prisoners to Fredericks town in the State of Maryland where he remained until there was a sufficient force of the militia raised to guard them, that he marched from there to Fort Pitt and remained there until Boats and provisions were obtained to transport them down the River to the falls of the Ohio where he arrived in the month of June 1781 as well as he now recollects where he remained until the fall or winter of that year, and marched from there into the State of Kentucky where he was discharged, that his discharge called for one hundred and fifty acres of land, and placed the same in the hands of Adam Dean, and knows not whether he ever obtain the land or not and cannot obtain that information owing to the death of the said Adam Dean which happened a few years afterwards, that he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service, that he was in no general engagement or Battle during his Service, He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or an annuity except the present, and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency of any State.
