State of Tennessee
Montgomery County

The twenty-first day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & thirty three Thomas Bell, a citizen of Montgomery County, aged 72 years, personally appeared before the County Court of Montgomery, & being duly sworn, upon his oath makes the following declaration, in order to obtain a pension under the Act of 1832, passed the 7th of June, as follows, to wit: that he was born the 3rd of January 1761 in Warren County, State of North Carolina, as has been informed by his parents, & believes – he has no record of his age & never had – that he continued to reside there until the commencement of the Revolutionary War – that he entered the service of the United States as a drafted militia man in the year 1777 or 1778, under Capt. White in a regiment commanded by Col. Caswell, for a tour of three months & was marched into South Carolina toward Camden, & was in the neighborhood of Camden when the battle took place; guarded prisoners during the time of the Battle – he thinks Genl. Gates commanded at the battle that the British were successful in the Battle – after the three months service expired, he was discharged, returned home – he was again drafted in a three months tour & entered the service of the U. S. in a company commanded by Capt. Moses Sherron & marched in the company to Hillsborough. This company was attached to a Regiment commanded by some Col. whose name he does not now recollect & who was a stranger to him & also by Maj. Johnson & was in the Brigade commanded by Genl. Eaton at the battle of Guilford Court House. After the defeat, the company of Capt. Sherron, or a great part of them, met at Ramsey’s Mill & continued with his company until the expiration of his term of service. He then enlisted in the Regular service for one year, he thinks, but does not recollect the length of term or the officers under whom he served, but was in service when Cornwallis was taken, and was stationed at Williamsburgh, and immediately after the taking of Cornwallis, he was discharged. He received discharges for all the tours served by him, but thinking them of no importance, they have been long since lost or destroyed. He continued to reside in Warren until he removed to Tennessee in 1819 or 1820, and settled himself in Montgomery County, where he has ever since resided. He is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any state, and hereby relinquishes all claims whatever to any pension or annuity from the United States, except the one provided by the law of 1832.

William Shaw, a clergyman of the county of Robertson & in the immediate neighborhood of Thomas Bell, & Greenville Nicholson, personally appeared in open Court, and being duly sworn, deposed & sayeth that they have been many years acquainted with Thomas Bell, the applicant for a pension; that they believe him to be seventy two years old as stated in the Declaration, and that he has the reputation in the neighborhood where he resides as having been a Revolutionary Soldier, and they concur in that opinion.

William Shaw
G. Nicholson

And the said County Court, after an investigation of the matter, and putting the interrogatories presented by the War Department, certify that they are of an opinion that the sd. Thomas Bell was a soldier of the Revolution, and that he served as stated in the above declaration. The said Court also certifies that William Shaw, a clergyman resident of the county of Robertson, adjoining Montgomery and in the neighborhood of Thomas Bell, and that said Greenville Nicholson is a citizen resident in the same neighborhood, and both credible persons, and that their testimony is entitled to full credit. Witness our hands & seals this 21st of October 1833.

Dear Madam:

The data furnished herein were obtained from papers in pension claim, S. 2973, based upon the service of Thomas Bell in the Revolutionary War.

Thomas Bell was born January 3, 1761 in Warren County, North Carolina. The names of his parents were not stated.

While residing in Warren County, North Carolina, Thomas Bell enlisted and served as a private with the North Carolina troops, as follows –

In the year 1777 or 1778, three months in Captain White's company, Colonel Caswell's regiment; three months in captain Moses Sherron's company, dates of this service not given; in 1781, about one year, was in service when Cornwallis was taken and was discharged immediately after, names of officers not shown.

Thomas Bell continued to live in Warren County, until in the year 1819 or 1820, then moved to Montgomery County, Tennessee.

He was allowed pension on his application executed, October 21, 1833, at which time he was a resident of Montgomery County, Tennessee.

The papers in this claim contain no reference to the family of the soldier, Thomas Bell.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, name and address of the person paid, and possibly the date of death of this pensioner, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, Washington, D. C., and give the following –

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War records of Benjamin and Thomas Coldwell (Caldwell) who served from Virginia and died in Virginia or Tennessee, Daniel Johnson (Johnston) who served from Pennsylvania or Virginia who died in or near Fayette County, Pennsylvania, and Thomas Bell who served from North or South Carolina and died in Dickson County, Tennessee.

There are no claims for pension on file based upon service in the Revolutionary War of the Daniel Johnson and Thomas Coldwell cited by you, nor of any Benjamin Coldwell; similar spellings of the surnames were used in the search of the records. The record of Thomas Bell who applied for pension while a resident of Tennessee is furnished herewith from pension claim, S.

Very truly yours,
A. D. HILLER
Executive Assistant to the Administrator.

From the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim S. 2973, it appears that Thomas Bell was born January 3, 1761 in Warren County, North Carolina.

While residing in said Warren County, North Carolina, he enlisted and served as a private in the North Carolina troops, as follows –

In the year 1777 or 1778, three months in Captain White's company, Colonel Caswell's regiment; afterwards, three months in captain Moses Sherron's company; and in 1781, one year (officers not remembered) and was discharged after the surrender of Cornwallis.

He was allowed pension on his application executed October 21, 1833, while a resident of Montgomery County, Tennessee, having moved there in 1819 or 1820.

It is not stated that soldier was married.
