On this 10th day of December 1832 personally appeared in open court before the county court of Todd county now sitting Overton Harris a resident of Todd county Kentucky aged seventy one years the 4th day of next January who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. In January 1778 [sic] I went to Albemarle Barracks where Burgoines men were stationed [sic: Burgoyne's troops captured at Saratoga 17 Oct 1777 and held at Albemarle Barracks Jan 1779 through Feb 1781] and there entered the service as a substitute for my stepfather Elias Thomason a malitiaman under Captain [Richard] Phillips Lieutenant Wm Smith [William Smith] Ensign [William] Clark, the company were from Louisa county Va Capt Robert Mosby commanded another company of malitia from said county. The guard consisted of about six malitia companies. I served this tour only 18 days we had no higher officer than captain but I was very young at the time and can not remember who was principal officer of the Guard at the end of 18 days we were relieved by the state troops, who were regular guard. I again entered the service in July 1778 [sic] to my best recollection but can not recollect the day of the month and was discharged sometime in the August after having served one month— I was drafted and marched directly to the same Barracks to guard the same prisoners and there continued until my month expired. I served this month with the regulars who guarded the prisoners constantly. I am not able to say what the name of the commanding officer of the guard was, but he was a colonel of a troop of horse belonging to the United States service [Col. Theodorick Bland], and I was acquainted with the regular captain who served with us to wit Robert Barret [sic: Robert Barrett] a state troop captain and Benjamin Timberlake [sic: Benjamin Timberlake VAS355] both from Louisa county Va Anderson Thompson and Richard White their Lieuts. Captain Holman Rice [S31327] from Goochland county Va Capt Roberts [John Roberts, pension application W2347; promoted to Major 5 Mar 1779] from Culpepper [sic: Culpeper] c. Va who was advanced to Maj. at the end of the month I was discharged and went home having served the whole time at said Barrack. In January 1779 [sic] I entered the service as a substitute in the place of John Thomson. I was marched directly from Boswells Tavern in Louisa c. Va. to the above named Barracks where I performed my months tour in guarding the above named prisoners with the above named regulars. I can not remember my captain or company officers, they were total strangers not being the officers that mustered me at home. I was discharged in February 1779. I again entered the service in the next July 1779 [sic] being drafted and were again marched to the barrack before mentioned & again served one more month with the same regulars before mentioned and all the time guarding the same prisoners. We had a new set of company officers each term, and serving as short a time under them can not remember their names, we never had any malitia officer higher than captain. Col. Taylor a regular took command of the guard and commanded during my third tour [Francis Taylor, 5 Mar 1779] and Col. Fountain [sic: William Fontaine W7319] commanded during my last mentioned tour and Maj. Roberts under them About the last of October 1780 [sic] I entered the service as a drafted malitiaman under Captain Philips the same I served under the first service above stated. Lieut. David Meriwether we were marched from Louisa to Richmond Va having no malitia field officers and were joined to a part of a state regiment commanded by Majors Mcgill & Maj. Decluman [probably Christian Charles de Klauman VAS827, a Dane] state regulars Declerman a frenchman We were marched from Richmond to Fort Pohatan [sic: Fort Powhatan at Hoods Landing on James River in Prince George County] then Fort Hood there crossed James River then marched to Mckees Mills [Mackie's Mills] in Isle of Wight County from there after the British had quit the Virginia coast we were ordered to retreat to Petersburg [sic:

Petersburg] and were there discharged the 4th day of December 1780. I again in April 1781 about the middle of the month was drafted with the service under the same company officers and served under them in the regiment of militia commanded by Col. Charles Dabney [R13624] Maj. Campbell both regular officer the middle regiment of General [Thomas] Nelson's Brigade who commanded us and was a militia officer. We marched from Louisa to Richmond from there to the Morvern Hills [sic: Malvern Hill 15 mi SE of Richmond]. We then retreated to Richmond from there we marched to Dandridge, there I was discharged the 20th of May. This tour we were under the command of Gen La Fayette who retreated to the Raccoon [sic: Raccoon] Ford on the Rapidan river where he met Gen Wayne [Anthony Wayne, 10 Jun 1781]. In June about the middle of the month I entered the service as a substitute in the place of James Dickenson under Captain John Sanders who was very soon after relieved by Capt Jesse Pollett [possibly Jesse Paulett] who took command of our company in Col. Dabneys regiment and General Nelsons Brigade and served one month. We marched from Louisa to Hanover from there Henrico from there to New Kent from there to James city county and there was discharged the 20th of July 1781. About the middle of Sept. after I was again drafted into the service under Captain [George] Lumsden and went in company with two other militia companies one commanded by Captain White the other by Capt Harris my captain was soon relieved by Capt. O. Pettis [Samuel O. Pettis] his lieut was Samuel Terril [probably Samuel Terrill] we had no other officer higher than captain until we got to poplar spring church in Gloucester [sic: Gloucester] County when Col. Thomas Baytop took command of us, but we were afterward put under the command of Maj. John Baytop who commanded a militia regiment, and adjutant Heresford[?] and General [George] Weedon a regular officer, we marched from Louisa through Hanover King William King & Queen to Frazers Ferry there crossed Mattaponi [River], from there to poplar spring church, from there to Sowels [Sewell's] Tavern in the neighbourhood of the siege of York There we we stayed until after Corn Wallis' [sic: Cornwallis's] surrender in Oct 19th 1781 and then were discharged.
