State of New Jersey, Sussex County SS

On this fifteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1820, personally appeared in open Court, before the Judges of the inferior Court of common Please, holden at Newton, in & for the said County of Sussex, (which said Court is declared by the Constitution and Laws of the State to be a court of record, with full powers of fine and imprisonment, and unlimited jurisdiction in civil causes) Jeremiah Lott, age 62 years and upwards, -- resident in the Township of Greenwich in said County -- who being duly sworn according to law, saith, that in the year 1776, he was enlisted by Captain John Dorsey, in the first Company of Light Dragoons, attached to the 4th Regiment of the Pennsylvania line, commanded by Colonel Stephen Moylan, -- that he served during the war and said Company as a trumpeter, and was discharged in the year 1783 at Lancaster in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; -- as in my original application is more fully set forth, and upon which my Certificate was granted, dated the 12th day of October 1818, numbered (3573.) And he further saith that he was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th of March 1818, and that he has not since that time, by gift, sale, or in any manner disposed of his property, or any part thereof, with intent thereby so to diminish it, as to bring himself within the provisions of an act of Congress, entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the Land & naval Service of the United States, in the Revolutionary war." -- passed on the 18th day of March 1818. -- and that he has not, nor has any person in trust for him, any property, or Securities, contracts or debts due to him; nor have I any income other than what is contained in a Schedule, hereunto annexed, and by me Subscribed: -- And this deponent further saith that by reason of two wounds received from a sword, on his right Shoulder and right thigh, and one received from a musket ball on the top of his head, and from very frequent attacks of the Rheumatism, that he is entirely unable to support himself and family, without the aid of Government, or public or private charity, -- that his family consist of himself, his wife named Elizabeth Lott, age 61 years and upwards, very infirm & unable to do anything towards her livelihood, but he is a continual charge to the deponent, -- one daughter named Lavinia Myers, late Lott, who has lately returned to this deponent, with her 3 children, one an infant, another about 2 years, and another about 4 years of age, that they are also a continual charge to the deponent; -- And this deponent further saith that he is by occupation a Sadler, that he does not, nor has he followed the same, since he left the Army, that he occasionally does a little of mending Shoes, but that he does not understand the trade. --

Sworn & subscribed in open Court, this 15th day of August A.D. 1820.
