Kentucky District }

This day [6 May 1818] came before me Robt Trimble District Judge of the United States in & for the district aforesaid, John Malone, now a Citizen of Woodford County state of Kentucky, who being first duly sworn, did declare upon oath, that he was & served the United States as, a Soldier in the 2^d. Virginia Regiment upon Continental establishment, in the Revolutionary war with Great Britain, that he at first enlisted for one year in Capt. Morgan Alexanders [Morgan Alexander VAS2203] Company of Riflemen from Hamshire County, Virginia [sic: Hampshire now in WV]: that afterwards in the year 1776 he enlisted at Winchester Virginia in Capt John McGuires Company for three years, & served the American Army in Philadelphia, & remained therein untill the Battle at Brandawine [sic: Brandywine PA, 11 Sep 1777] where he was Captured by the enemy after being wounded & having thereby loss the sight of his right eye; that he was taken to Long Island by the British from whence he made his escape from the enemy, & served the American Army in the South commanded by Genl Green [sic: Nathanael Greene after 3 Dec 1780] & was in the Battle of Guilford [Guilford Courthouse NC, 15 Mar 1781], Cambden [sic: Battle of Hobkirk Hill near Camden SC, 25 Apr 1781], Eutaws [Eutaw Springs SC, 8 Sep 1781] & Ninety Six [Siege of Ninety Six SC, 22 May – 19 Jun 1781] & remained in the Southe army nearly two years; and was finally discharged from the service at Salsberry, South Carolina [sic: Salisbury NC], on the 17th day of January 1782 by Col. Hawes [Samuel Hawes BLWt1066-450], Commanding the 2^d. Virginia Regiment; that his discharge in writing remained in his possession for many years, but about 14 or 15 years ago, it was by some cause unknown to him so lost or mislaid that he has never since found it; that he has never rec'd any pension either from the state or United States Government that he is about Sixty four years of age that he is in very reduced & indigent circumstances, & in need of assistance from his Country for support: his wherefore he prays a pension &c. This day Genl. Marcus Calmes [Marquis Calmes S12674] came before me & being by me first duly sworn, deposed, that John Malone in the year 1775 enlisted in the Company of Capt Morgan Alexander, then Captain in the 2^d. Virginia Regiment on Continental establishment, in which the deponent was then a Lieutenant, that said Malone enlisted for a year, & served out the term of his enlistment; and that from the best information the deponent believes said Malone afterwards inlisted in Capt. McGuires Company, (belonging, as well as he remembers to the 16th Virginia Regiment) during the war; the deponent states, that he is well acquainted with the said Malone & his circumstances in life; that the said Malone is entirely destitute of property, & able to do but little labour; & that upon the whole he is in very reduced circumstances in life & needs the assistance of his Country for support, being at this time dependant in a great measure upon the charity of others.
