Virginia        Be it Remembered that At a court held in and for the county of Monongalia on Monday the 23<sup>d</sup> day of November AD 1818 - Edward Haymond aged about 63 years resident of this county personally appeared in court and being duly sworn, on his oath made the following declaration (in order to obtain the provisions made by the act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States during the Revolutionary war") towit "That he the said Edward Haymond enlisted on the 26th day of August in the year 1776 as a regular soldier under Capt. John Wilson of the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment of Regular troops. That he enlisted in the County of Monongalia and marched thence up the Alleghany River under Col. McCoy against the indians - thence to Philadelphia. That when Col. [Daniel] Morgan's Rifle corps was formed he joined and served under Morgan one year at the end of which time the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment aforesaid being attached to Pittsburg, he was ordered to join it and with it he served about a year under Col. Daniel Broadhead [sic: Daniel Brodhead] and then rec'd his discharge from Lieut. Col. Stephen Bayard of said regiment which discharge he sold about ten years ago for fifteen dollars. That in all he served upwards of three years in the Regular service of the United States. That he is much debilitated by age and inward irruption which renders him entirely unable to support himself by labour. that he has no Estate of any kind to afford him subsistence for support" — And this court doth certify that it appears to their satisfaction that the said Edward Haymond did serve in the Revolutionary war on the continental establishment against the common enemy for the term of three years as is stated in the preceeding declaration, and that he is unable to support himself by labour and has not an Estate sufficient to support himself without labour, and that he stands in absolute need of the assistance of his country for support.
