State of Pennsylvania Cumberland County Ss.

On this fifteenth day of April 1818, before me the Subscriber, one of the Judges of the Court of Common pleas in and for said County, pesonally appears, James Berry aged sixty eight years & three months resident in East pennsboro township in the said County of Cumberland, who being by me first duly sworn according to Law, doth, on his Oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the provision made by the late Act of Congress, entitled, "An Act, to provide for certain persons engaged in the land & naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War." That he the said James Berry, enlisted on the 17th day of February 1776 in the State of Pennsylvania in the Company commanded by Captain Percival Fraser [Persifor Frazer] fourth Regiment Pennsylvania Regulars, commanded by Col. Anthy Wayne [Anthony Wayne]; that he continued to serve in said Corps in the service of the United States, untill the Revolt [see endnote], at which time the term of his enlistment expired, when he this deponent immediately afterward enlisted in Captain John Davis's Company 1st Regiment, Pennsylvania Regulars commanded by Col. Broadhead [sic: Daniel Brodhead], and continued in said Regiment untill the conclusion of the war when he was discharged by Gen'l. [Richard] Humpton from service in the year 1783 in the City of Philadelphia, that he was at the Battles of Monmouth [28 Jun 1778], Green Springs [Green Springs Plantation on Jamestown Island VA, 6 Jul 1781], Siege of York Va [Yorktown, 28 Sep -19 Oct 1781] & several skirmishes with the enemy. That from the time he first enlisted, untill he obtained his final discharge was almost eight years, that he sent his discharge to Phil'a by a Gentleman to obtain his land for him, that he never received his land nor had his discharge returned to him, Deponent further saith that he is in reduced circumstances, and stands in need of the assistance of his Country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power, of his said services.
