The Company in which they enlisted were commanded by Capt. Thomas Parker which company was in the 11th Virginia Regiment which said Regiment was commanded by a Col. Campbell, the same that was killed at the battle of Eutaw Springs [8 Sep 1781].

NOTE: Col. Arthur Campbell was in the militia of Washington County VA. There was no Col. Campbell in the 11th Virginia Regiment. The Col. Campbell who was killed at the Battle of Eutaw Springs SC, as stated by Parks and Bailey, was Lt. Col. Richard Campbell of the 4th Virginia Regiment. I could find no record of a Capt. Thomas Parker in that regiment.
