[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Also, the handwriting of the original scribes often lends itself to varying interpretations. Users of this database are urged to view the original and to make their own decision as to how to decipher what the original scribe actually wrote. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. Folks are free to make non-commercial use this transcript in any manner they may see fit, but please extend the courtesy of acknowledging the transcriber—besides, if it turns out the transcript contains mistakes, the resulting embarrassment will fall on the transcriber. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those and any other errors to my attention.]

State of North Carolina Currituck County: County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions August Term 1818

Personally appeared in open Court, Isaiah Parr who being duly sworn, Deposeth, that at the breaking out of the war of the revolution, he enlisted in the Continental service for six months, under Captain Blount, as a regular soldier and during this tour of duty that he was in the battle of the Great Bridge – that immediately after the end of this first tour, he enlisted again in the Continental service, under Captain Roger Moore, whose company was attached to Colonel Gideon Lamb's Regiment – that he was appointed a Sergeant in his Company and was in the battles of Trenton, Brandywine and Germantown – that he then received the commission of a Captain in the regular Continental Army and was attached to Colonel Clark's Regiment that he was in the battle of Monmouth and at Stoney-point – that afterwards he was appointed Brigade Major and went to watch upon the coast of his native State and while on that duty, he captured Captain Whaling, who came into Currituck with 3 British or enemy row galleys – that he served his country to the end of the war, and until he was discharged, a period of 5 years & 9 months – that all his papers have been destroyed – and being now aged and infirm he stands in need of the benefit of the act of Congress for the relief of the soldiers of the revolution.

Sworn to in open Court.

Personally appeared in open court Joseph Ferebee, who being duly sworn, deposeth that he knows Isaiah Parr and well recollects that he served in the Continental Army and believes the facts set forth in the affidavit of the said Parr are true

Sworn to in open court

State of North Carolina Secretary's Office 18th of February 1819

I hereby Certify that it appears from the muster rolls of the Continental Line of this State, that Isaiah Parr enlisted as a Sergeant in said Line for 2 1/2 years on the 24th of December 1776 in Captain Goodman's Company of the 4th Regiment and was discharged on the 10th of November 1778.

Given under my hand the date above.
