Pension Application of Naniad (Neniad) Coleman S42657
Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris

VA

The State of Ohio } SS
County of Hamilton }

Personally came before the undersigned one of the Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County of Hamilton Neniad Coleman residing in the said county who being duly sworn according to law deposeth and saith, that some time in the Autumn of the year 1776 or beginning of 1777 he enlisted at Leesburgh in Virginia in Captain John Ashby's company of the 3rd Virginia Regiment upon Continental Establishment to serve for three years – that he served in the company commanded by the said Ashby, and afterwards by Volentine Peyton [sic: Valentine Peyton], who succeeded to the command in consequence of Capt Ashby's being wounded, and left the service. That he served in the Regiment aforesaid commanded by Col. William Heath [sic: William Heth] until he was discharged on the 10th day of December 1779 a few days before the three years, the period of his enlistment had expired, in consequence of being disabled by the reumatism. And this deponent further deposeth and saith, that now in consequence of his advanced age (being in the 72nd year) bodily infirmities, and reduced circumstances he stands in need of the assistance of his country for support and further saith not
