Pension Application of Henry Baumgartner (Baumgarten) S45246

VA

Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris. Revised 7 Jun 2017.

Henry Baumgartner aged sixtyone years deposeth and saith that some time in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eightytwo, he enlisted at Stevensburg [sic: Stephensburg, now Stephens City] near Winchester in Virginia into a company of foot commanded by Captain Sheriff in a Regiment commanded by Colonel Armung [sic: Charles Armand], a frenchman, in the Virginia line of Continental troops then on Continental establishment. The Nos. of said Company and Regiment this deponent has forgotten, but this deponent enlisted as aforesaid for five years or during the war, as a private soldier. This deponent performed his duty as a good and faithful soldier in said Company and Regiment during about fourteen or fifteen months in the service of the United States, and till the close of the Revolutionary war, and was regularly and honorably discharged from the service aforesaid at Little York in Pennsylvania which discharge this deponent parted with for the purpose of obtaining a land-warrant, and a landwarrant was issued thereon in the name of this deponent as appears from the receipt of Sale as [illegible word] herewith enclosed – This deponent knows of no other evidence at present within his power to prove his services aforesaid – This deponent has been a Citizen of the United States ever since the Revolution and is now a Resident Citizen of Franklin County in the State of Ohio – This deponent has never received any pension from the United States, and is now in reduced and indigent circumstances and needs the assistance of his Country for support

He has one daughter about fourteen, another about ten years of age, neither of whom are able as yet to support themselves without assistance – his wife and the children above named compose his family, and he has no other children who are able to render him assistance – This declarant was visited with an apopletick fit or palsey about ten months since, and has been ever since helpless and unable to walk about the house and from sickness and misfortune really needs the assistance of his country for support.

Henry hisXmark Baumgartner

I Henry Baumgarten alias Baumgartner aged 73 years do on oath testify and say That I enlisted into the Army of the Revolution for and during the war and remained in its Service untill its termination at which time I was honorably discharged as a Dragoon in Capt Sharuffs Company in Col Armands Corpse. I further testify I never have received from the United States a Land Warrant to which I am entitled by reason of the Services aforesaid

Sworn and subscribed before me this 19th day of October 1827      Henry hisXmark Baumgartner

The following is from [bounty-land records in the Library of Virginia indexed as Baumgardner, Henry.]

THIS is to certify that Henry Baumartner [undeciphered word] in the Grenadiers in the First Partisan Legion, under my Command, has served [several undeciphered words] to this Day, is hereby discharged from the Service of the United States, in Pursuance of Orders received from the Commander in Chief, bearing Date the third instant.

I farther certify that henry baumgartner [one or two undeciphered words] having been enlisted in the State of Virginia is intituled by the Resolution of Congress, of the 13th February, 1779, to the Benefits that have been, or hereafter shall be, granted by the said State to the Noncommissioned Officers and Soldiers of the said Line.

Given under my Hand and Seal at York Town, this Thirteenth Day of November, 1783.

[signed illegibly by Charles Armand BLWt2291-850] Brigadier General.

Entered in the Books of the Legion.

Attest.

Godfried Swartz

Adjutant of the Legion.

NOTE: Baumgartner was evidently dropped from the pension list because the Pension Office considered anyone with an estate valued at more than $200 as not being impoverished enough to qualify under the act of 1820.
